CRAIG S. MCKIBBEN/Sun-Gazette

The Community Alliance for Positive Progressive Action (CAPPA) held its fourth annual performing arts showcase at the Community Arts Center on Saturday. The theme was "Every Kind of People." Above, the CAPPA All-Star Choir, comprised of all showcase participants, sing in the finale. CAPPA is primarily an educational resource, providing students with mentorship and tutoring from local college students. It also uses the performing arts as an incentive to join and helps children build self esteem. View additional photos at cu.sungazette.com.
