On Nov. 15, under the auspices of local community group CAPP, eight Loyalsock Township students, three Lycoming College mentors and three chaperones traveled to the Pennsylvania Convention Center in Philadelphia to participate in the second annual Pennsylvania Governor's Conference for Women. This day-long event offered 4,700 women an opportunity to hear practical advice on everything from career advancement and professional development to money management and life skills. Speakers at the event included former Secretary of State Madeleine Albright, Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor and Gov. Ed Rendell.
